To

Offg:Secretary to the Covernment of H.H.

the Maharaja of Mysore, Genl. & Rev.Depts.

Sir,

With reference to your Official Memo No.710/Muz.273-12-2 dated the 30th November 1912, forwarding for report the petition of Krishnachar alias Anniahcharof Kodihalli, Kankanhalli Taluk, praying for the acceptance of his offer of 10 acres of land for Rathotswa of the Sri Ramadevaru temple at Hosdurga, I have the honor to submit herewith the connected file of vernacular correspondence and to state that it is seen from the records that the land offered is a waste land never cultivated (Anadi Banjar)and full of shrubs and jungle, that it is situated in a Kayamgutta village belonging to 4 joint share holders including the petitioner and his brother Samachar, that the petitioner or his brother is said to have no exclusive right over the land offered. When a notice was served on the other two hakdars viz.Keswachar and Sreenivasachar, they never turned up, but the latter has endorsed on the notice, that it is not known who the petitioner Krishnamachar is and that it is learnt that Samachar the holder of half the village has mortgaged the same. The petitioner is reported to have since died. In the deed of gift, the petitioner himself values the property offered at a small amount of Rs.30/-. Samachar the brother of the deceased petitioner states that he cannot under-take to clear the jungle and bring the land under cultivation.

2. The Sub-Division Officer of the Closepet Sub-Division re-ts that there is no use of accepting such a land, that if the

was really earnest in making an endowment to the

the temple he could sell the land himself and offer the proceeds thereof to it, and that as the petitioner too is dead the matter may be dropped, instead of carrying on an elaborate enquiry and entering into unnecessary litigation for no purpose.

3. In the above circumstances, I beg to state that I am also of the same opinion as the Sub-Division Officer, and that the matter may be dropped. I have asked the heirs of the deceased whether they would sell the land and make a cash endowment, and if they do so, a further reference will be submitted.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

K. Maudey

Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District.
